Sunday, May 10th – Mother's Day

This Sunday is super special because it's all about mums! We get to celebrate how to incredible they are – the wonderful things that the day for us and the impact that they have on our lives. God loves us very much, and he loves our mums as well. Some kids don't have a mum at home so it could be a sad day. But often, they might have an aunty or a grandma or someone else who fills that special place in their hearts. Make sure you say thanks to someone special in your life today!
